

Warrenville History Unit Bibliography

General Books about Researching History

- Climbing Your Family Tree, online and off-line Genealogy for Kids* by Ira Wolfman. Workman Publishing, NY. 1991. (Warrenville Historical Museum Research Library)
- Discover, Investigate the Mysteries of History with 40 practical projects probing our past* by Katherine Grier, Illustrations by Pat Cupples. A Royal Ontario Museum Book. Addison-Wesley Publishing Co. Inc. 1989. (Warrenville Historical Museum Research Library)
- History Comes Home, family stories across the curriculum* by Steven Zelman, Patricia Bearden, Yolanda Simmons, Pete Leki. Stenhouse Publishers, York, Maine. 2000. (Warrenville Historical Museum Research Library)
- Know Your Hometown History, Projects and Activities* by Abigail Jungreis. Franklin Watts Publ. NY. 1992. (Bower School Library)
- My Backyard History Book* by David Weitzman, Illustrated by James Robertson. Little, Brown and Co. Boston. 1975.
- Who Put the Cannon in the Courthouse? A Guide to Uncovering the Past* by Kay Cooper, Illustrated by Anthony Accardo. Walker's American History series for young people. Walker and Co. NY. 1885 (Warrenville Public Library)

Books about Warrenville History

- In and Around Historic Warrenville* by Leone Schmidt
- Life and Times of Warrenville* by Leone Schmidt
- Ask the Historian* by Leone Schmidt
- Come Fly to the Prairie* by Leone Schmidt
- When Democrats Ruled DuPage County* by Leone Schmidt
- Women in Warrenville History* by Leone Schmidt
- Wis for Warrenville* by Carolyn Wondrow
- Count Your Way through Warrenville History* by Carolyn Wondrow

Videos/CDs – available at the Warrenville Historical Museum

- Old Sturbridge Village* - Visit an 1830's living history village. Includes: barn-raising; see printers, potters, blacksmiths and other craftsman; meet curators, historians and costumed interpreters.
- Old Sturbridge Village* – Explore this 1830's village through the eyes of Saran and her brother Jonathan as you go through the tasks of their everyday life.
- An Interview with City Historian Leone Schmidt* – Find out how Mrs. Schmidt got interested in Warrenville history and how she collected the information.
- Chicago, Aurora & Elgin Railroad* – Watch the old electric train as it passes through the Warrenville stops and see Warrenville station.
- Pottowatomi* – PowerPoint presentation on the Pottowatomi Indians who camped along the DuPage River in Warrenville. Learn about their food gathering, shelters, transportation, clothing, customs and leaders.

Other Books on Pioneer Life and Native Americans in Illinois – available at the Warrenville Historical Museum